

TEN catchy peer review ideas

to boost critical thinking and speaking skills

Two stars and a wish

Cops and robbers

Three Cs

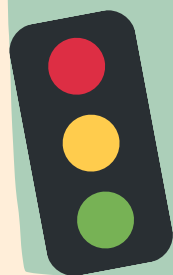

TAG

Tell, Ask, Give...

Praise sandwiches

Two Wins and a Wonder

Traffic lights

One thing I learned, one question

Read more

What works well
and why?

Plus
Minus
Next

TRANSFORM ENGLISH

©Transform English 2024 All rights reserved

Two stars and a wish

2 Stars: positive comments, strengths, things you liked.

1 Wish: a suggestion or new idea to consider.

Cops and robbers

Cops find mistakes or things to improve...

Robbers find good ideas or sentences to ‘steal’!

Three Cs

give a Compliment, a Challenge: ‘can you improve....?’ and ask a question to Clarify a choice or information.

TAG Feedback

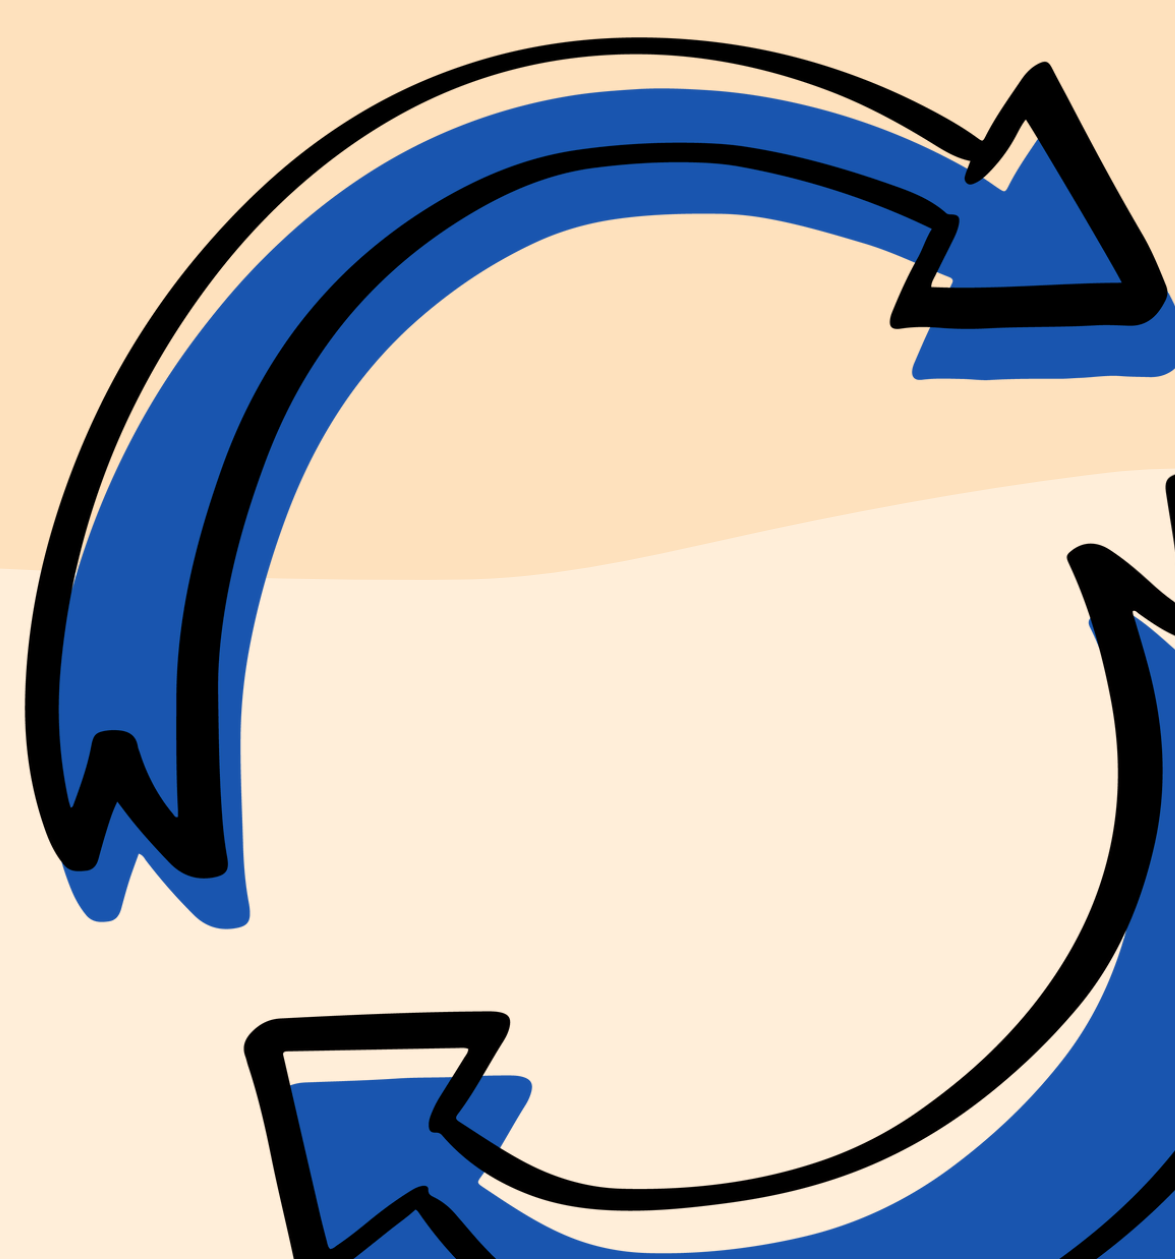

Tell: what you liked.

Ask: a question to prompt deeper thinking or understanding.

Give: a suggestion for improvement.

The Sandwich Approach

positive comment – constructive suggestion – positive comment.

Traffic lights

Stop: Highlight something that isn't working so well.

Ready: Suggest something new to try.

Go! Something great to keep doing

One thing I learned, One Question I Have

Share something you found interesting or useful. Dig deeper with a thought-provoking question.

What Works Well and Why (WWWW)

Focus on discussing what works well and why it's effective, followed by suggestions for improvement.

Plus-Minus-Next

Plus: Highlight a positive feature.

Minus: Point out a challenge or area for improvement.

Next: Suggest a possible next step or solution.

Two Wins and a Wonder

Two Wins: Identify two successes or effective parts of the material.

One Wonder: Share something you wonder about or feel uncertain about.

