

Super Sculptures

Learning Objective:

To make a sculpture with a simple human form.

NEXT

These sculptures are by a sculptor called Henry Moore.

Talk to a partner
about what you can see....

They seem to be made from one single piece of metal or stone with smooth, curved, flowing surfaces and edges.

Henry Moore made sculptures of humans and human-like figures formed of simple shapes.

How is this different to the way human bodies really look?

This is a strange sculpture!

Sometimes, the way sculptures are arranged can give information, or tell a story.

What does this sculpture make you think of?

I think it looks like three people standing in a circle, talking.

You might think it looks like something completely different!

This is the full arrangement of sculptures.

Now what do you think?

What do you think about this sculpture? Does it tell a story?

NEXT

Today we will be making sculptures with simple shapes, surfaces and lines.

We will arrange them together to give information, or tell a story.
